Disability Support Worker Diploma Program (3~Semesters)

If you are interested in making a difference in the lives of individuals with developmental disabilities, consider the Native Education & Training College Disability Support Worker Program.

During your 3~Semester program of study you will be provided with the knowledge and skills required to support people with developmental disabilities to live in dignity, participate and share in all aspects of life. Field placements help with your learning.

Each week you will have the opportunity to apply classroom skills in actual settings where people with disabilities live, work and play.

Field placements assist you in determining an area of specialty. Many jobs result from field placement experiences.
